KIMBERLY AGNEW

EMPOWERING HAITI'S MOST VULNERABLE GIRLS TO LIVE
HEALTHY LIVES FREE FROM VIOLENCE

Kim is a supporter and board member of numerous nonprofit organizations that provide support to victims of domestic violence and life skills training to at-risk youth, particularly victims of sex trafficking and slavery. She is a founding board member of the Agnew Family Foundation, a private foundation gifting to organizations that enhance the lives of children. She is also an emeritus board member and long-time supporter of Portland's Classic Wines Auction, which benefits women, children and family charities.

Recognizing a profound spiritual connection between the mind and the body, Kim spent two years studying under Doctor Alberto Villoldo, a medical anthropologist and Shaman. After studying the spiritual practices of the South American 'Quero Shaman she traveled to Peru and climbed Mount Sulkantay, the source of the Sacred Feminine energy. Kim is also currently immersed in a Chopra "Perfect Health" teaching certification program to help transform lives through the Ayurvedic Lifestyle, an ancient health system based on mind-body balance utilizing nature, meditation and yoga. Kim has experience in event planning as well as a management background in retail and wholesale distribution. She practices daily meditation, loves to cook, write (particularly children's books), paint, garden, ski, travel and spend precious time with her husband, Dan, their five children, ten grandchildren and their Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, Louie.
